7 day cruise vacations from Miami

You will be traveling on a spectacular Super Liner and have more than 100,000 tons of fun! This enormous floating resort has four pools and tiers of deck space for fun in the sun and all kinds of night spots that light up when the sun goes down, and just when you think you've seen every fun area, you'll probably find a new one. She even gives you a choice of two 7 day itineraries.

On the Western itinerary, you can enjoy the sun, sea and attractions of three completely different nations: Cozumel in Mexico, the British island of Grand Cayman, and Ocho Rios in independent Jamaica. The highlights of this cruise includes the watersports of Seven Mile Beach and climbing Dunn's River Falls.

Her alternating Eastern Caribbean itinerary takes you to cosmopolitan San Juan; to the beaches, golf courses and shops of St. Thomas; and to St. Maarten, which is half Dutch, half French and totally enchanting.

Whether you choose Eastern or Western Caribbean you will be cruising on a ship that turns any vacation into a triumph.

7 day cruise vacations from San Juan

Your cruise ship is as long as three football fields allowing more space for clubs, lounges, two-level dining rooms, a far bigger casino and an enormous outdoor entertainment area. You'll discover exciting new areas every day during your 7 day cruise from historic San Juan.

At your first destination, St. Thomas/St. John, you can play golf on famous Mahogany Run, swim, snorkel and go on a duty-free shopping spree in the hillside shops of Charlotte Amalie. A completely different mood awaits you in French Martinique, renowned for the Parisian sophistication of its capitol, Fort-de-France, and the rain-forested beauty of its dormant volcano Mount Pelee. During your day in British Barbados, be sure to partake of afternoon tea and shop for quality products from the British Isles. After dark, take your choice of all kinds of cabarets and hotel floor shows. The following day brings still more adventures in the Dutch Island of Aruba. After a day of sun worshipping on magnificent beaches or strolling through storybook Oranjestad, you'll have till almost midnight to enjoy the island's plush gaming parlors, name-star nightclubs and the revues at the Palm Beach hotels.
